Thursday ok - 1030am, but phonecall is easier. Before we meet, I'd like to have your response in email that you agree to rules that I put in the email below on the 8th:

- 1) Nothing said is binding on anyone; nor can what is said be raised in litigation.
- 2) Only a signed, written agreement will be binding, and
- 3) No delays will be considered in any proceeding begun unless ordered.

This Message has originated outside of your organization.

Isaac,

Re Scott's note from below, if you'd like to speak, you can call me anytime. But, before any discussion regarding settlement occurs, we need three "rules" to be agreed upon in advance, in an email:

- 1) Nothing said is binding on anyone; nor can what is said be raised in litigation.
- 2) Only a signed, written agreement will be binding, and
- 3) No delays will be considered in any proceeding begun unless ordered.

Regards, and have a good Pesach.

James

James,

I spoke to Isaac. He is in Israel the next few weeks, but would like to set up a meeting for when he gets back to discuss your employment agreement and reach an amicable resolution. Probably sometime the week of April 25, if you are available.

James,

Let me know if you have a few minutes this afternoon or tomorrow to talk. I wanted to give you an update on your desk and a few other matters.

Thanks,

Scott
